Envision online survey offered to FD residents

Fort Dodge residents who didn't attend the recent Envision 2030 focus group sessions can still provide their input via an online survey.

The survey can be found on the Fort Dodge city Web site, www.fortdodgeiowa.org. To find it, scroll down the home page and click on a box with the Envision 2030 logo.

That survey is the same one that was used in the focus group meetings.

In the future, that site will have a summary of the Envision 2030 plan, a schedule of public meetings about it and data that has been gathered in the community.
