Important:

The annual maximum is the applicable statutory maximum for my High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) coverage type (i.e., single or family). The IRS may adjust this amount each year. Contributions are prorated based on the number of months I am covered under an HDHP. An exception to this rule allows participants with an HSA who are covered on December 1st to contribute the entire amount for the year. My HSA contribution election can be changed prospectively, for any reason.

By electing HSA benefits, I am certifying that I meet the requirements under Internal Revenue Code § 223 to be eligible to contribute to an HSA. I understand that:

- I must be covered by an HDHP to contribute to an HSA.
- I may not be claimed as a dependent on another individual's income tax return.
- I may not be covered by other medical coverage, including Medicare or my spouse's traditional medical Flexible Spending Account.
- HSA benefits cannot be elected in addition to medical spending account reimbursements unless the Limited Purpose option is selected.

For more information about HSA eligibility requirements, see IRS Publication 969.

SIGNATURE

It is my responsibility to determine (1) whether I am eligible to make contributions to my HSA, and (2) whether contributions to this HSA have exceeded the applicable maximum annual contribution limit.
