MEDIA RELEASE

Ryan Maehl, Assistant to the City Manager

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 6, 2020

In accordance with local, state, and federal guidance on re-opening from COVID-19 closures, effective immediately, the City of Fort Dodge will begin to accept special event permits on a case by case process for events that can follow the current health guidelines. Those events of larger size will not be accepted until further notice.

Event organizers that feel their event meets the prescribed standards are welcome to submit their special event permit through the normal process. The City of Fort Dodge encourages event organizers to reevaluate their current event strategies and adapt events to fit new health guidelines to provide these recreational activities for the community.

We will continue to work with leadership to assess the changing situation and will make adjustments as necessary. Please contact Ryan Maehl at (515) 576-4551 or rymaehl@fortdodgeiowa.org with any questions.
